

Emergency Readiness Workshop:

Engaging youth-serving organizations in emergency preparedness

What: Discover available resources for integrating emergency preparedness into your organization's existing youth programs. Learn from experts in your local community who have developed and delivered youth and/or emergency preparedness programs.

Why: Nearly 1 million youth call the Puget Sound home, which is a region that is highly susceptible to a wide range of natural hazards and threats. Learning ways to educate and empower youth to better prepare themselves, their families and friends, is essential to building a more resilient community!

When: *Two workshops are available to choose from

Wednesday, May 1 from 4-8 p.m. at the American Red Cross office in south Seattle

OR

Saturday, May 11 from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. at the Girl Scout Center in DuPont

Audience: Community and faith-based organizations, youth development leaders, leaders of after-school/ extracurricular/weekend/camp programs, and emergency management and preparedness professionals interested in youth programs.

Hosted by:

- The American Red Cross, Western Washington Chapters
